

Press Release

Ascertainment of the requirements of a Director

Roma, 11 February 2019

The Board of Directors, having obtained the opinion of the Appointments Committee, today has:

a) Ascertained that the newly-coopted Director, Marella Idi Maria Villa, co-opted by the Board of Directors on 25 January 2019, complies with the requirements set out under the regulations in force. In particular, the Board verified:

- the existence of the requisites of honorability and professionalism required by current legislation and in line with the approved document called "Orientation on the Qualitative and Quantitative composition of the Board of Directors deemed to be Optimal";
- that the independence requirements set forth in art. 148, 3rd paragraph, of Legislative Decree 58/1998 (TUF), by art. 3 of the Corporate Governance Code for listed companies and by the Articles of Association are not met.

b) Ascertained the overall adequacy of its composition and the correspondence of this composition to the statutory and regulatory provisions in force.

The curriculum vitae of the Director Marella Idi Maria Villa is available on the Company's website at www.doBank.com, section "Governance / Board of Directors".
