

PRESS RELEASE

ITALFONDIARIO BECOMES DONEXT

doNext is the new brand chosen by the Group leader in credit management, a name that speaks for dynamism and evolution Rome, February 21, 2022 – After more than 130 years of history, Italfondionario, a doValue Group company, changes its brand image and becomes doNext.

doNext is the brand that identifies the evolution of Italfondionario, the largest operator in Italy for the number of securitizations of performing and non-performing portfolios and UTP management. The Company boasts the highest Servicing Ratings recognized by the major international Agencies and has developed a practise of innovation over the years to address the market with innovation, proactivity, dynamism and extensive experience in Banking, Restructuring and Corporate Finance.

The values of tradition and trust will be the pillars of doNext in order to continue to be the durable strategic partner for its customers.

doNext S.p.A., formerly Italfondionario S.p.A., is a company of the doValue Group, the leading operator in Southern Europe in credit management and real estate services for banks and investors.

Born in 1891 as a banking institution, in 1999 it was transformed into a company specialized in credit management and today, after the acquisition by doValue in 2016, it represents one of the main operators in the integrated credit management sector at the top of the main international ratings. doNext, thanks to the perfect complementarity with doValue, represents the strategic partner at the service of banks and investors for the integrated management of performing and non performing credits and is the first operator in Italy for number of securitizations (with over 50 structured securitizations since 2000).
