COMMENTS

Positive commercial dynamics: €400 million new mandates since August largely driven by new mandates won in Spain from a leading banking institution and new UTP portfolios in Italy

Strong progress from Forward Flows which stood at €3.2 billion, covering once again ~85% of collections. This performance was mainly driven by solid contributions across countries with continued acceleration in flows from Santander in Spain (+46% YoY)

Estimated €45 billion mandates in the market in the next 18 months with strong contribution from both Italy and Greece while Spain continues to show opportunities especially in banking generated loans. Non-financial receivables continue to represent a large opportunity

- Issuance upsized from €300 to €350 on the back of very strong demand

- Flexible capital structure without significant maturity walls in the medium term, sustained by solid cash generation
- Strong access to capital markets providing ample flexibility for future optimizations, such as early repayment of the term loan or refinancing of the 2030 bond at more attractive conditions (potential annual savings in the mid-to-high single-digit million range⁽¹⁾ if both refinanced at SSN 2031 coupon rate)

The background is a deep blue gradient. Overlaid on this are several glowing, neon-blue lines that swirl and curve in a dynamic, organic pattern. These lines have a bright, luminous quality, with some areas appearing more intense than others, creating a sense of depth and movement. The overall effect is reminiscent of a stylized, futuristic landscape or a complex, flowing energy field.
